

“FSY” TSX

Shares Outstanding: 74,774,204

FORSYS ENGAGES GRD MINPROC FOR ENGINEERING SERVICES AT VALENCIA

For Immediate Release: September 20, 2007

Forsys Metals Corp (“Forsys” or the “Company”) is pleased to advise that GRD Minproc (“Minproc”) has been engaged to provide engineering services relating to the Feasibility Study for the Company’s Valencia Uranium Project \(“Valencia”\) in Namibia.

Minproc is a leading independent engineering construction firm providing high value services and specializing in the design, procurement and construction of mineral resource projects. Minproc is an Australian based organization with a major office in Johannesburg, South Africa and direct uranium experience in Africa.

Forsys and Minproc have also entered into negotiations for the provision of EPCM (Engineering/Procurement/Construction/Management) services associated with the development of Valencia.

Duane Parnham CEO, stated “This is a critical step in the development of the Valencia project and we are very pleased to be working with GRD Minproc who have extensive experience and an excellent reputation, particularly in Africa.”

Contacts:

Forsys Metals Corp.
Duane Parnham
Chairman/CEO
(416) 601-1286

Bruce Hall
Chief Communications Officer
(416) 601-1286